Back to thy peaceful villages and fields My memory, like a weary pilgrim, comes With scrip and burdon to repose awhile. Thus sang J. G. Holland of his native valley. To his youthful poetic vision the Holyoke mountains, as seen from old Northampton, were a mystery and an inspiration. Shadows of fleecy clouds chased each other up and down the green slopes of Norwottuck. Along the rocky summit of Bare Mountain summer storms gathered, and from this stronghold marched across the valley. Sturdy evergreens with roots running deep into the scanty soil between the cliffs and boulders diversified the snowy winter landscape. This ever-changing mountain wall, rising against the southern sky, was a perpetual challenge to the youth who afterward climbed those heights, and left for us a vivid word-painting of the scene which he beheld.
