BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 26 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed proposed policy and oversight for education standards, focusing on: (1) the functions needed to certify proposed voluntary national education standards and create a system of assessments; (2) whether the proposed National Education Standards and Assessments Council (NESAC) and the National Education Goals Panel (NEGP) can perform these functions; and (3) how Congress can avoid overlap and conflict of responsibility among several existing and proposed governing bodies. GAO found that: (1) NESAC and NEGP need to review and certify content standards, design an assessment system, review national testing assessments, and evaluate the effectiveness of the assessment system; (2) NESAC will require more members with technical expertise to properly assess technical issues; (3) NESAC and NEGP will need to coordinate the review of content standards and the development of school delivery standards; (4) NESAC is not designed to deal with technical reviews of tests for their alignment with content standards; (5) proposed legislation does not address assessment system design or evaluation; (6) NEGP is constituted to carry out negotiation and representation functions necessary to policy decisions,...
