Dealing with Sexual Abuse: A Young Australian s Insights

By Hannah Baker

Wallace Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Sarah Millicent Elliott (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . How can you see bruises that massive and not care? Not even say is everything alright at home? (Diaries, age 16) This beautifully illustrated colour book provides a young Australian s devastating account of slipping through the cracks of the child protection, education and support systems. Hannah has bravely shared her teenage diaries to provide rare insights into the experience of child abuse. She describes her criminal justice system ordeal, and the ongoing impacts of the abuse on her life. To conclude, Hannah provides her advice for those who are supporting young people who may have been abused. She also outlines her ideas for system reform so that young people are better protected than she was. Since first being released as an e-book in May 2014, this updated and comprehensive book has been widely used by practitioners in the fields of child protection, youth work, mental health, counselling, education (primary, secondary and tertiary), abuse prevention, criminal justice and policy reform; as well as by parents, carers and abuse survivors. The book contains...
