What Josiah did when he was sixteen years old.--His strong faith in God, in resolving to reform his people.--The wickedness of Judah at that time.--Manasseh s idolatry.--Account of Moloch and other false gods.--Manasseh s punishment and repentance.--Amon s great wickedness.--Extent of Josiah s kingdom.--His anxiety to do his duty. In the eighth year of Josiah s reign, or when he was sixteen years old, the Bible tells us that he began to seek after the God of David his father. We cannot conclude, from this manner of speaking, that Josiah had not felt, before this time, any true love to God, and desire to obey his commands. David commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son in building the temple of the Lord, and said to them; Set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God. It will not follow from this, that none of these princes had any true piety before. Ezra, a very pious man, and a high priest among the Jews, when he returned from Babyion with many of his countrymen, who had been with himself in captivity there, to their own city, Jerusalem, -- had prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord and to do it. He had doubtless often sought the Lord before that time. We read of Hezekiah, one of the kings of Judah, that in every work that he began in the service of the...
