Reminiscences of an Agitator With a Diagnosis and a Remedy for Present Economic Conditions. CHAPTER I. Whom the Gods Wish to Destroy, they First Make Mad. Ten years ago, political conditions in Los Angeles were well nigh intolerable. One man, through the connivance of some and the pusillanimity of others, Lpractically ruled the city.p He was an absolute dictator. CJSTo man could be a candidate for public office, y in city or county, without his sanction, and when elected, no office-holder could appoint a deputy or assistant to the humblest position in his administration without the o. k. of the dictator. A newspaper, more or less in league with this dictator and the principles he represented, ruthlessly maligned and berated any citizen who dared to question the motives or methods of this oligarchyind altogether the situation was, as already mentioned, intolerable. It was a veritable political reign of terror, and there seemed but little prospect of relief, until about nine years ago, Dr. John R. Haynesthe author of these reminiscences, iid four other men met and organized the Direct Legislation League of Los Angeles. Here was the beginning of the work that has revolutionized the operation of politics in this State, and which bids fair to be a prime factor in doing for the nation what it has already done for the State. Intoxicated with power, filled with contempt for the people in regard to their political rights, never dreaming that their downfall...
