She asked him to what she owed the honor of his call, as he must have known that to her all these questions were a matter of absolute indifference. He was a little taken aback, but he said to her that the truth was he had not come at his own wish at all, but that God had literally obliged him to come, and he said, What I have to say to you is very brief; it is only this, God has need of you. She looked colder and haughtier than ever, and he was obliged to beat a retreat. But only a very few days had gone before there came from this lady a letter asking him to go to her at her house at his own time. He went with some May 13. Jesus At The Pharisee s House. 181 misgiving, but she...
