Whats not to like Everything, to 14 year-old Elizabeth Barker. Its the middle of 9th grade and Dads uprooted the family, returning to his Gulf coast hometown. A once-bustling fishing community, Port Winston is pushing every boundary, vying to be the states premier tourist destination. A far cry from quiet, Coulter City, Missouri where Elizabeth used to be somebody and family meant something a whole lot different. Between Moms story assignment in Mexico, Dads 14-hour workdays and weekends minding Grandpa at the docks, their once close-knit life is in shreds. Taunted as the newbie camera geek at school, Elizabeths given up trying to fit in. When Grandpa, whos got more judgments than the Old Testament, pronounces her 10 shy of worthless and headed for trouble, Elizabeth bolts for Wayward Landing beach--the countys last wild haven. Her impulsive defense of an endangered, nesting sea turtle against a...
